Tuesday, December 10. 1717.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Rome, November 13.

TH E Prince of Muscovy, eldest Son of the Czar, having seen the Vatican, the Churches and Palaces, and all things remarkable here, especially the Relicks preserv'd in the Churches of St. John de Lateran, and S. Mary Majora, where he kis'd with Reverence the Tooth of S. Jerome, who was a Sclavonian, of which Nation the Muscovites say they are descended, to all which he was accompanied by Don Carlo Albani; is departed from hence. On Sunday last, Count Gallasch caus'd a Mass to be sung in the Church del' Anima with several Choirs of Musick, to solemnize the Name-day of the Emperour; and the same Day in the Afternoon, Monseigneur Olivier, Sacrifian, by Order of the Pope, carried one of the Turkish Standards which the Emperour sent to his Holiness, to the Dominican Church of St. Mary of Minerva, and deliver'd it to the Father General of the Order, who received it at the Head of the Community, blessed it, and carried it in Procession into the Middle of the Church, where it was solemnly hung up. On Monday Morning, Cardinal Paracciani went to Audience of the Pope, and took Possession, in the usual Form, of the Office of Vicar; in the Afternoon, Don Carlo Albani went to the House of the Marquis de Fuentes, who has quitted the Character of Ambassador of Portugal, and presented to him, from the Pope, an Urn, wherein were the Bodies of three holy Portugueze Martyrs. On Wednesday a German Officer arrived here by Post from Vienna, who, after he had spoken with Count Gallasch, pursued his Journey to Naples. His Holiness has received a very fine Latin Letter from the Emperour, by which he demands of him two Ecclesiasticks Zealous and Learned, for the Bishopricks of Belgrade and Temeswaer, and 'tis said that M. Nicolai, Vicar of St. Peter's Church, is likely to be named for one of those Bishopricks. They are about to send to Muscovy, two Prelates, and four learned Missionaries, to give the Czar Satisfaction upon some Points of the Catholick Religion. It is known, that in the last Audience given to Cardinal de la Tremouille, his Eminence deliver'd to the Pope a Writing, containing divers Projects for adjusting the Affair of the Constitution, and that Matter requiring serious Deliberations and Reflections, his Holiness consults the most Learned Divines about it, in Order to take the Resolution which shall be best and most solid. Yesterday being the Festival of the blessed Stanislaus Kotzka, the Pope went on Foot to the Church of the Noviciate of the Jesuits, which is near the Quirinal, where the Festival was Celebrated with great Solemnity. On which Occasion the new Chapel of Marble dedicated to that blessed Saint, was open'd, altho' it be not yet quite finished. Cardinal Gualtieri is return'd hither from Urbino, whither he went to confer with the Chevalier de St. George, and he had Yesterday a long Audience of the Pope. The Marquis de Santa Croce has newly receiv'd from the Emperour the Dignity of a Prince of the Empire, and the Order of the Golden Fleece.

Leghorn, Nov. 12. The Archbishop of Lisbon is arrived here from Genoa, going by the Way of Florence to Rome. The Duke of Tursis is also arrived here from Assisi, and to Morrow will set out again for Genoa. According to the Report of Masters of Ships arriv'd from Tunis, those Corsairs are arming a Ship lately taken, which bore Genoese Colours. A Galliot of Tunis having met at Sea near the Island of Corsica, a French Bark, pillag'd it, and abus'd the Seamen, which Bark being arriv'd here, the Master of it has made Complaints to the Consul of his Nation, who is to demand Reparation of the Regency of Tunis. We hear from Malta, that they are building two new Men of War, in the Place of two others grown old, and make use in that Work of part of the Timber taken upon a Turkish Galley that was passing from Constantinople to Alexandria; the Maltese have also taken three Turkish Saicks richly laden, one whereof they sold in the Archipelago for 80000 Crowns. The Master of a French Bark arriv'd this Evening from Cagliari reports, that it has been intimated to all the Inhabitants who took up Arms for the Emperour, that they must retire elsewhere, but leave is given to them to sell their Effects.

Venice, Nov. 20. Te Deum has been sung in the Ducal Church of St. Mark, for the taking Prevesa; at which the Doge, the Senate, and the Pope's Nuncio assisted, and for three Days together the Bells were rung all over the City. On Tuesday in the Evening a Saick arrived here, in 16 Days from Cattaro, with Advice, that the Proveditore General of Dalmatia, Sebastiano Mocenigo, viewed on the 15th past the Fortres Antivari, the Town, the Country round, and the Avenues to it, being accompanied by the other Generals, and the Engineers; and then open'd Trenches at 260 Paces from the Place, and erected Batteries of Cannon and Mortars, which began to play on the 16th; on which Day, our Men made themselves Masters of many of the Houses of the Town, which they sack'd and burnt. The Besieg'd had made four Sallies by the 21st, the last whereof was the most vigorous, being sustain'd by 5000 Turks who came from Scutari and Dulcigno, but after four Hours Combat, were repuls'd and put to Flight with great Loss. In which Action, the Sieur Simon Contarino, Sur-Intendant of the Artillery, was wounded in the Arm by a Faulcon Shot. The Siege was continued, and the Batteries play'd till the 30th, at which time it was resolv'd in a Council of War to quit the Enterprize, by reason of the advanced Season of the Year, and the frequent

Storms;

Storms; & that after having ruin'd the Fortress by the Fire of our Cannon and Mortars, and burnt the Houses of the Town, they embark'd the Artillery, Provisions, Ammunition, and all the other Materials, and made a Retreat to Cattaro, without suffering the least Injury. The Marquis d'Alinecourt, Nephew of the Marshal de Villeroi, who has made the Campaign in Hungary as a Volunteer, is arrived here from Vienna, intending to go to Rome and Naples, from whence he will return hither, to participate of the Diversions of the Carnival.
